

2022 IJPC Youth Justice Award

The IJPC Youth Justice Award will be given to a club, group, or extracurricular program of high school students who have made a dedicated effort to promote justice in Greater Cincinnati. The winner will receive the award as part of IJPC's Annual Gathering on Thursday, October 6, 2022. In addition to the recognition, a $500 award will be given to the group.

We will be accepting nominations until August 26, 2022.

Criteria:

- Group, Club, or Extracurricular program for individuals between the ages of 14 to 18
- Purpose of the group is driven by peace and justice work
- Demonstrates actions for peace and justice through unique outreach or educational efforts
- Demonstrates growth in understanding of justice through their work
- Ongoing and sustainable commitment to peace and justice (more than a one time or once a year project)
- Efforts by the group have advanced participation in justice and peace within the school or local community

To nominate a group, fill out this Google Form by August 26, 2022:

<https://forms.gle/gpbMTPNvdBmD91Yv8>