

2023 Ignite Peace Youth Justice Award

Ignite Peace, formerly Intercommunity Justice and Peace Center, is excited to announce the 2023 Ignite Peace Youth Justice Award. This award will be given to a club, group, or extracurricular program of high school students who have made a dedicated effort to promote justice in Greater Cincinnati. The winner will receive the award as part of Ignite Peace's Annual Gathering on Wednesday, October 4, 2023. In addition to the recognition, a $500 award will be given to the group.

Previous Award Winners:

Hands Across Campus from Archbishop McNicholas High School - 2022

We will be accepting nominations until August 6, 2023.

Criteria:

- Group, Club, or Extracurricular program for individuals between the ages of 14 to 18
- Purpose of the group is driven by peace and justice work
- Demonstrates actions for peace and justice through unique outreach or educational efforts
- Demonstrates growth in understanding of justice through their work
- Ongoing and sustainable commitment to peace and justice (more than a one time or once a year project)
- Efforts by the group have advanced participation in justice and peace within the school or local community

To nominate a group, fill out this Google Form by August 6, 2023:

<https://forms.gle/KdHxSf1VqiiPe4R66>